

A thank you letter to someone in your family.

Name: _____
Class/number: _____

Research tells us that when we take the time to thank someone who is important to us, they appreciate it. It also makes the person who is doing the thanking happy, too.

Think about your family. Who would you like to thank? What do (or did) they do that is special? What do you want to thank them for?

Please write a letter to the person.

You can write in English and translate it into your first language.

OR Write the in your first language and translate it into English.

In English, use some of these words.

- I want to thank you...
- I remember the time you...
- because
- ... was special to me
- I appreciate...
- love

_____, 20__.

Dear

(Your name)

I hope you will decide to actually give or send the first language part of the letter to the person. ☺

Empty box for writing the translation.

Translate this into your first language.
← Write it in the box.

In my English class, we have been talking about families. My teacher asked me to write a letter to a family member thanking them for something they have done.

I decided to write to you. Here is the letter.

Large empty box for writing the letter.

You're special.

