

Our positive web

Work in groups of 3-4.

Look at the words.

The sentence starters will help you understand the meaning.

When have you felt this way lately?

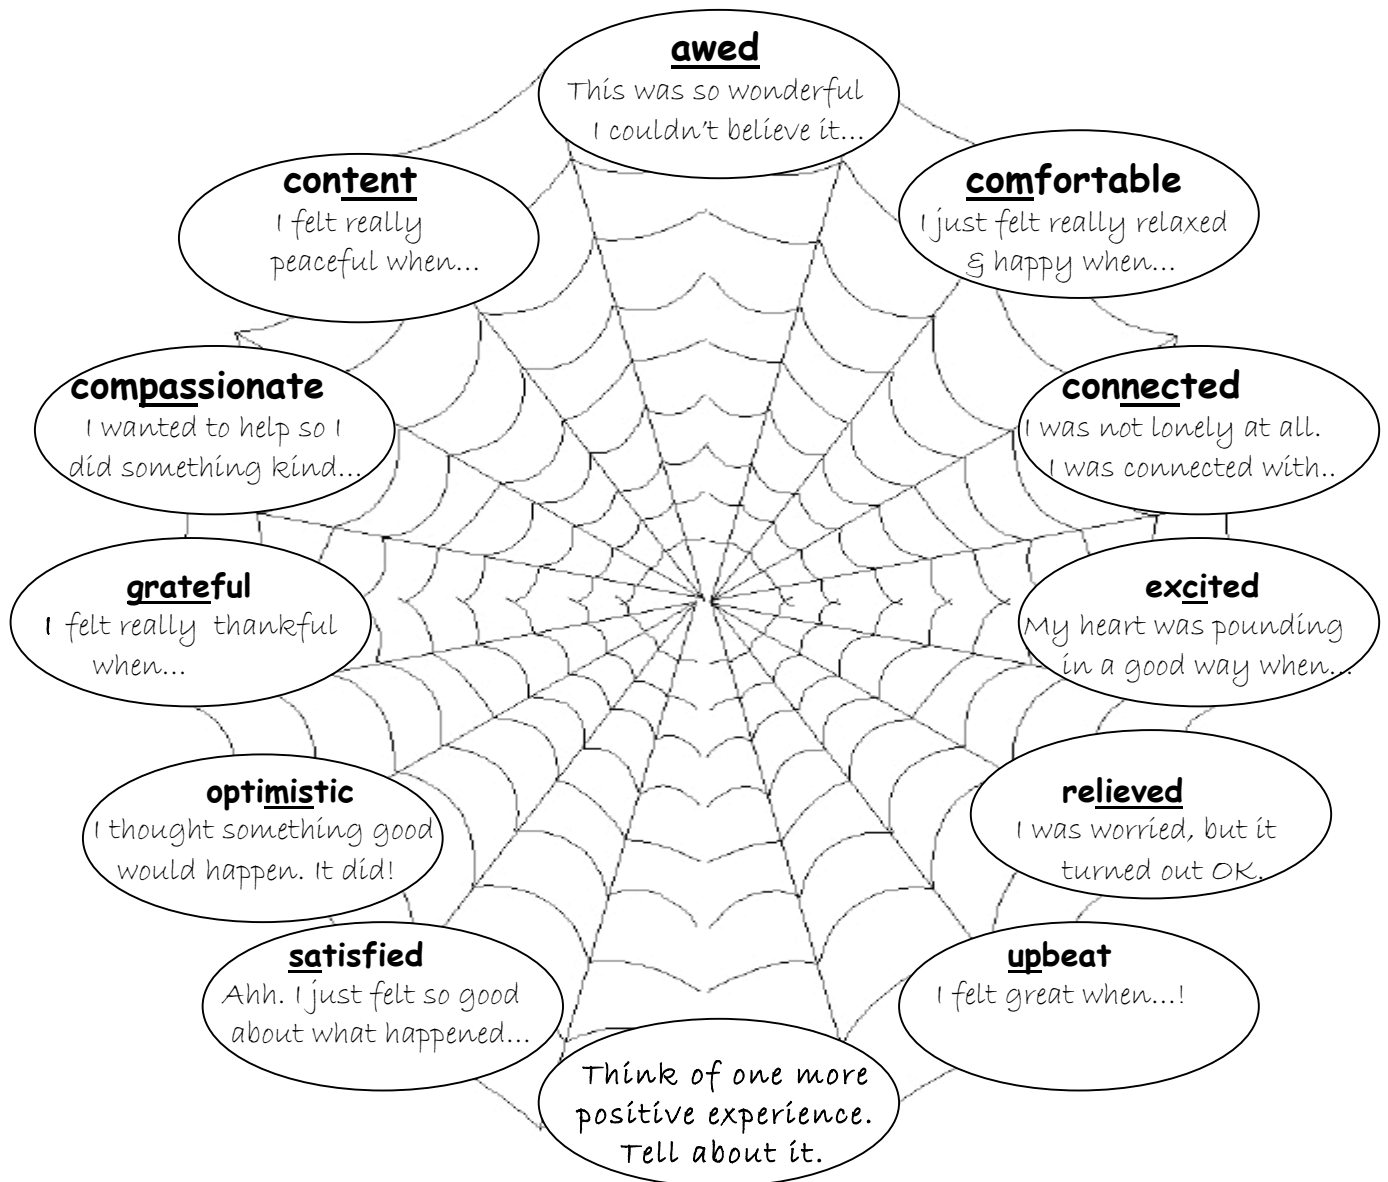

Tell about your experience.

Take turns. Each time, draw a line to the next word.

Each person used a different colored pencil or pen.

(or draw different kind of line ——— - - - - - ~~~~~).

Different people can use the same word again.

Language focus: adjectives (intermediate level)

Positive psychology focus: Happy people remember good things that happen.
