

A thank you letter to someone in your family.

Name: _____
Class/number: _____

Research tells us that when we take the time to thank someone who is important to us, they appreciate it. It also makes the person who is doing the thanking happy, too.

Think about your family. Who would you like to thank? What do (or did) they do that is special? What do you want to thank them for?

Please write a letter to the person.

You can write in English and then translate it into Japanese.

OR Write the in Japanese and then translate it into English.

In English, use some of these words.

- I want to thank you...
- I remember the time you...
- because
- ... was special to me
- I appreciate...
- love

_____, 20__.

Dear

(Your name)

I hope you will decide to actually give or send the Japanese part of the letter to the person. ☺

私達は英会話授業の中で 家族について語りあってきました。そこで、先生は 家族への私達の感謝の気持ちを手紙にかいてみるように言いました。

In my English class, we have been talking about families. My teacher asked me to write a letter to a family member thanking them for something they have done.

I decided to write to you. Here is the letter.

A large empty rectangular box with a dotted border, intended for writing a letter.

You're special.
